“The world is in a constant state of chaos. Design is what brings order to it!” – Karim Rashid

Couldn't have said it better.... And, it's true, isn't it? Everything around you needs design. Its design that makes life easier, simpler, better! Even cumbersome at times! And that's precisely why; we never tire of talking about design, and the proponents of good design. There again, I'm digressing.

Well, to be honest, I'm just bragging about the fact that I met Karim Rashid, the original rockstar of design!

Coming back to design that simplifies life; Amit Gaikwad, our tech expert talks about gadgets and innovations that will make our lives a lot smarter. Taking her cue from the season, the freshness and the positivity that it brings to our lives, Kamakshree tells you how to work with the sublime colour palette of powdery palettes. Tell us what you to think.

Write to us. Tell us what you'd like to read this year. We'd be only too happy to oblige.

Happy reading...

Happy New Year!

CLARKE & CLARKE AT MAASHUQA

GULMOHARLANE

Blue is one of those chameleon colours that can be edgy, and at the same time, subtle. And that's why we love it!

We're not ones to follow trends, but classic blue as the colour prediction for year 2020 is something we are definitely on board with. It is cool and warm, all at once, and that's a great way to usher in the new year. Don't you agree?

PINTEREST

Now, we've spoken about blue having a warm and cool effect, but this Pinterest grab reminds us that it can easily lend itself to an elegant setup as well. What say?
